Chapter 3

Civil Rules

Division 2

Law and Motion

Rule 3.2.0 Scheduling Hearings and Tentative Rulings

- (a) Civil law and motion matters are heard Monday through Friday at 8:30 a.m. at the El Centro Courthouse in the civil department to which a case has been assigned, unless otherwise directed by the Court. The moving party shall set the date of hearing by specifying the date, time, and department in the notice of motion, in accordance with statute. The Court may reschedule such matters to accommodate workload, if necessary. See the Court's website, www.imperial.courts.ca.gov, for setting mandatory reported cases.
- (b) Any civil department may issue a tentative ruling in a law and motion matter, in the sole discretion of the assigned judge. The tentative ruling may specify the issues on which the Court wishes the parties to provide further argument. If a tentative ruling is issued the day before the date set for hearing, no notice of intent to appear is required to appear for argument, and the tentative ruling may be obtained from the Court's website. The tentative ruling may also be posted on a calendar note on the day of the hearing, or announced by the Court at the time of oral argument.

- (c) Attorneys and self-represented parties may appear by Court Call for all Law and Motion matters. However, if the hearing is contested and/or will have argument, counsel are required to appear by Video Court Call.

[Adopted July 1, 2007, amended 07/01/08, amended subd (a) 01/01/13, adopted subd (c) 01/01/18]

Petition for Modification of Protective Order in Criminal Proceeding Information and Instructions

General Information for the Petitioner requesting modification:

The petition should state the reasons that support your request. If additional space is needed to provide complete information in the Petition, you may attach a separate page. The information that you provide is public information unless otherwise ordered by the court. Your home, work or other addresses may be kept confidential if the defendant does not know them. However, a mailing address may be requested by the Court so you may be notified of future hearings. The filing of this petition does not change the terms of the current order. Only a Judge can modify the terms of the current protective order after a hearing.

CLERKS CANNOT GIVE YOU LEGAL ADVICE. In addition, the clerk cannot: advise you what words you should use; tell you what to say in court; give you an opinion about your case; talk to the judge about your case or let you talk to the judge outside of court. For additional information, please contact a lawyer or your local law library at the El Centro courthouse or check the California Courts Self-Help Center website at www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp. You can contact the Victim/Witness Assistance Program for help in in this petition at: 760 336-3930 or 760 351-2890.

Filing:

1. Complete form CR-16 titled "PETITION TO MODIFY (POST JUDGMENT) PROTECTIVE ORDER IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDING." You will need to provide proof of your identity in the form of a driver's license or other photo identification.
2. File the completed petition at the court where the protective order was issued. Make 4 copies of the petition. Retain one copy for yourself and send a copy to the defense attorney, the Office of the District Attorney and the Imperial County Probation Department. The Office of the District Attorney must receive a copy and written notice of the hearing at least 5 days prior to the hearing. The clerk will schedule the hearing. Attend the hearing. Failure to do so will result in a denial of your request.

LETTERS ROGATORY, SERVICE IN MEXICO

Instructions for Service of Process of Initial Family Law Filings in Mexico. This form is available at the clerk's window or online at <http://www.imperial.courts.ca.gov/courtforms/courtforms.html>.

STAGE ONE: File your request at Court

1	Complete the Ex Parte	Fill out the form entitled Ex-Parte Application for Issuance of Letters Rogatory for Service of Process in Mexico; Order Thereon .
2	Complete the Request for Service and Summarize Main Points	Fill out the form entitled Request for International Judicial Assistance for Service of Process in Mexico (Letters Rogatory) . In Item One of the Request , write the correct code of civil procedure sections for the Mexican state receiving the Request . A list of relevant code sections for each Mexican state is included in the packet. Code sections may change, please verify that it is current. Fill out page four of the form entitled Essential Information for the Respondent .
3	Copy your Case	Attach the conformed copies intended for the Respondent. If you no longer have that set, buy a certified copy of your summons and petition. Include blank forms for service.
4	File the Ex Parte and the Request for Service	File the Ex-Parte Application and the four-page Request , and the Respondent's conformed copy and blanks at the family law filing desk. For applicable rules regarding ex-parte matters, review the local rules of the Imperial County Superior Court.
5	Receive the Signed Order & Documents	After the forms are signed by the judicial officer and the clerk of the court, the original and one copy are returned to you. The court will keep the second copy of the forms in the court file.

STAGE TWO: Authenticate the Judge's and Clerk's signatures

6	Mail or Walk in the original 3-page Request to the Secretary of State	Fill out the Authentication &amp; Apostille Order Form. Send it with the original signed Request to the California Secretary of State. This asks that the judge's and clerk's signatures be verified with an Apostille which will be attached to your application and returned to you. To drop off in person:          Los Angeles Regional Office          300 S. Spring St., Rm. 12513          Los Angeles, CA 90013          (213) 897-3062 To mail:          Sacramento Main Office          1500 11th Street          Sacramento, CA 95814          (916) 657-5448 There is a fee. Include a self-addressed stamped envelope. See, www.sos.ca.gov/business/notary/authentication.htm.

This instruction packet is designed as a tool to assist you with the process of having the other party in your family law case validly served in Mexico. It may not include all of the information that is legally required, it is not legal advice, and should not be used as a substitute for legal advice from an attorney licensed by the State Bar of California. To find out how to hire an attorney and/or obtain a consultation with a family law attorney, see <http://www.courts.ca.gov/1084.htm>.

STAGE THREE: Copy and translate documents

7	Translate all the Forms into Spanish	After you receive the Apostille from the Secretary of State, you must translate all the forms in your court file into Spanish, including the Request, and Essential Information . You may find most of the family law forms available in Spanish at http://www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm and on http://www.imperial.courts.ca.gov . Copy the information in your English paperwork to the translated forms. You may find an interpreter here www.courts.ca.gov/3796.htm . The translation does not have to be certified.

STAGE FOUR: Send to proper Mexican Court for service

8	Send Documents to Mexican State Court	Submit the following documents to the Mexican family court in the state where the respondent resides: Original four-page Letters Rogatory  Apostille from Secretary of State  Respondent's conformed case copy  &amp;  Blank Response forms  Blank Certificate of Execution 1. Translate all originals and blanks into Spanish.  2. Make 2 copies: Original and 1 copy for Mexican court, 1 copy for yourself A directory of Mexican family law courts in each state is included in the packet. Names and addresses may change; please verify that the address is current. You may take the forms personally to the Mexican family law court, mail them, or have someone else take them on your behalf. You may make a copy of the forms for your own records.
9	Wait for Mexican State Court to Serve Respondent	Once the Mexican family law court receives all your paperwork, it will assign it to the appropriate judicial staff to serve the Respondent. Once the service is complete according to the laws of the Mexican state, the server will complete the Certificate of Execution and return it to the California court requesting the assistance.
10	Mexican State Court Returns Certificate of Execution	There are three ways that the Mexican Court may return the Proof of service, and it will depend on how they received it. If the Letters Rogatory was mailed by the party, it will be mailed back to the party. If the party walked the Letters Rogatory directly to the Mexican Court, then the party can pick it up in person. NOTE: Often, the Mexican Court will return all documents associated with the Letters Rogatory, including the Mexican Court's own notes and documentation. The documents may be bound into a packet that can be 30-80 pages long. Often, the Certificate of Execution will be bound inside the Mexican Court's file. There can also be a cover letter from the Mexican Court indicating whether the service was successful. After you receive the certificate of execution and cover letter from the Mexican Court, you must translate the forms into English. Bring the translated certificate of execution to the California Court.
